The Church, the Sorrowing Mother

Although there is grave sin that you cannot wash away yourself with the tears of your penitence, let the mother of the church weep for you. She who intercedes for all as a widowed mother for only sons is she who suffers with the spiritual grief of nature when she perceives her children urged on to death by mortal sins.

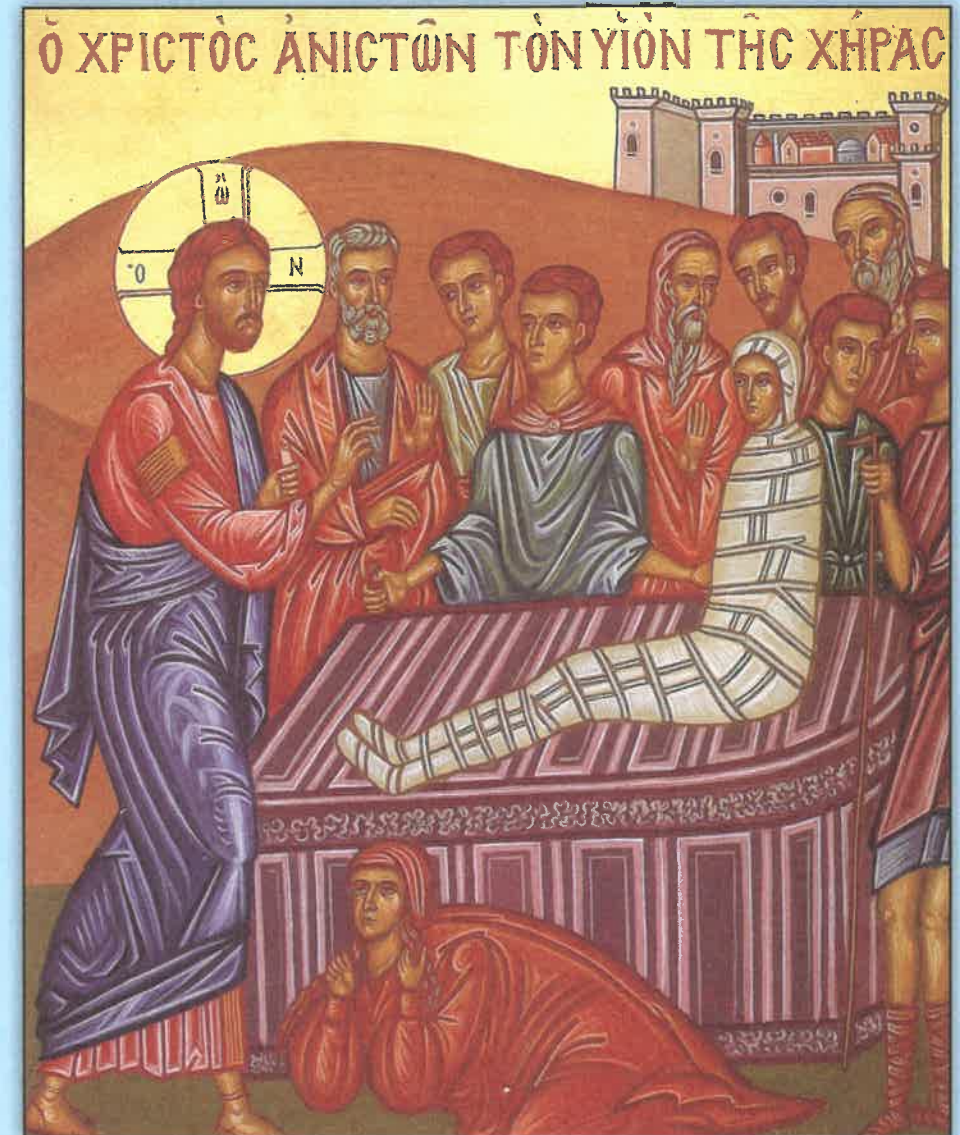

We are heart of her heart, for there is also a spiritual heart that Paul has, saying, "Yes, brother, I want some benefit from you in the Lord. Refresh my heart in Christ." We are the heart of the church, since we are members of his Body, of his flesh and of his bones. Let the pious mother grieve, let the crowd, too, help. Let not only the crowd but also a multitude feel pity for a good parent.

Already at the funeral you will arise, already will you be released from the sepulcher; the attendants at your funeral will stand still, you will begin to speak words of life, all will be afraid; for very many are corrected by the example of one. They will praise God, who has bestowed upon us such great help for the avoidance of death.

A Widow's Son is Raised

At that time Jesus went to a city called Nain, and His disciples and great crowd went with Him. As He drew near to the gate of the city, behold, a man who had died was being carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow; and a large crowd from the city was with her. And when the Lord saw her, He had compassion on her and said to her, "Do not weep." And came and touched the bier, and the bearers stood still. And He said, "Young man, I say to you, arise..."

Today's Gospel reading concerns the resurrection of the son of the widow of Nain. We recall that this miracle occurred just after the healing of the servant of the centurion, a healing which had taken place at a distance.

This miracle happened because as a human-being, Christ in his human nature, felt pity and had compassion on those who were suffering. In the particular case of the widow, there was great reason for compassion. In those days a widow was likely to become very poor unless she was looked after by her children. Now the only son of the widow of Nain was the only one who could look after his mother. Without him she would have become destitute, a beggar and perhaps would have died of starvation on the streets. The miracle of the resurrection of the widow's son was quite unique, unheard of and unseen in human history - only the Son of God could have carried this out. No human healer can raise the dead. It occurred at the word of Christ and through His physical touch. It occurred at His word, because He is the Word of God, and it occurred through His physical touch, because only contact with the divine and immortal nature can confer resurrection, the overcoming of mortality. Only deathlessness overcomes death, only immortality is greater than mortality.

This miracle proves that the divine power of the Holy Spirit flows not from, but through, Christ's all-pure human nature. Christ's Word and Body are Life-Giving, as is later proved in the Gospels by His own physical resurrection. Now since the Church is the Body of Christ, this means that the same power flows through the Church and confers life and healing and resurrection on all who touch Christ in the Church, participating in the spiritual life of the Church. Amen.

Pastor Appreciation Day today

Pastor Appreciation Day began with the establishment of Clergy Appreciation Month. In Timothy 1 (5:17), St. Paul began the concept of clergy appreciation when he stated that the elders of the church are worthy of a double honor. He reiterated this idea in Thessalonians 1 (5: 12-13) when he stated that those who work hard among you should be held in the highest regard for their work. This idea became Clergy Appreciation Month in 1992, established by pastors and religious workers. Eventually, Pastor Appreciation Day would form out of the second Sunday in October.

THE DOCTOR IS IN

We drag with us to Liturgy on Sunday...our small failures and large ones. The guy who finds himself wishing his boss would lose his job. The woman who is consumed with resentment against someone who did her wrong. The kid who cheated on a test. The wife who realizes she has begun to fill her emptiness by buying things. The dad who tortures himself with the harsh words he flung at the son who disappointed him.

So when you come to Liturgy lugging your little sack of sins and regrets, you've come to the right place. We can lay our failures at the feet of Christ, who is the Doctor for what ails us. His message, after all, has always been called the "good news." Sin and death aren't the end of the story. Life is more than it seems. Grace abounds. Change is possible; forgiveness can be had for the asking. Mercy overflows. The good Doctor's office hours are 24/7, but He hosts a special meal every Sunday at our parish.

BENEFITS OF GROWING OLDER

More time for good memories, less time for nostalgia.

More time for satisfaction with what we've achieved, with less time to worry about what we haven't done.

More time to spend with great books, as we waste less time keeping up with fads.

More time for walking in peace, with less time spent running in place.

More time to get to know ourselves, as we spend less time wondering what everyone else thinks about us.

While you may morn more as you grow older, be sure there's never less time to dance with joy.

"For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven... a time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to morn, and a time to dance."
