Welcome Christ in Your Hearts and Homes

The Lord, who already welcomed Zacchaeus in his heart, was now ready to be welcomed by him in his house. He said, "Zacchaeus, hurry up and come down, since I have to stay in your house." He thought it was a marvelous piece of good luck to see Christ. While imagining it was a marvelous piece of good luck quite beyond words to see him passing by, he was suddenly found worthy to have him in his house. Grace is poured out, and faith starts working through love.

Christ, who was already dwelling in his heart, is welcomed into his house. Zacchaeus says to Christ, "Lord, half my goods I give to the poor, and if I have cheated anyone of anything, I am paying back four times over." It is as if he were saying, "The reason I am keeping back half for myself is not in order to have it, but to have something from which to pay people back."

There you are. That is really what welcoming Jesus means, welcoming him into your heart. Christ was already there. He was in Zacchaeus and spoke through him. The apostle says that this is what it means, "For Christ to dwell by faith in your hearts" (Eph 3:17).

Sunday of Zacchaeus

And Zacchaeus stood and said to the Lord, "Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have defrauded any one of anything, I restore it fourfold." And Jesus said to him, "Today salvation has come to this house, since he also is a son of Abraham. For the Son of man came to seek and to save the lost."

On this Sunday let us consider three things regarding the repentance offered by Zacchaeus, which might be of benefit to us as we prepare slowly to enter the Great Fast-Lenten season. First, as we see in today's Gospel reading Zacchaeus had a great desire to see Christ. In the Patristic tradition of the Eastern Church, the vision of Christ in glory is synonymous with man's deification, his union with God – in other words, in the tradition of the Church, to see Christ as He truly is, the Lord of glory, is the goal of the Christian life. We must remember that this vision is not merely with the physical eyes, but also with the eyes of the soul, man's spiritual sight. Such a vision of Christ is the most authentic and deepest desire of all human beings, whether they know it or not. Zacchaeus, however, did know this, and he was taken over by this holy desire to see Christ.

This brings us to our second point. Zacchaeus's desire to see Christ led him to action. In spiritual terms, we call this asceticism. One could only imagine how difficult it must have been for Zacchaeus, being a man of short stature, to physically climb up into the sycamore tree. However, the greatness of this ascetical feat pales in comparison to the struggle he undoubtedly underwent to cast aside his pride and humiliate himself before the crowds.

The third and final point of consideration, regarding the repentance of Zacchaeus, is perhaps the most important. After Zacchaeus's desire to see Christ had led him to climb the tree, which was an act of asceticism done in humility; and after the Lord had told him that he must receive Him into his house; Zacchaeus, convicted more by his conscience than the murmuring of the crowds, cast aside his love of money, and purged the sin of greed from his heart, choosing to give away half of his possessions to the poor and making fourfold restitution to those he had defrauded. This decisive act of repentance allowed the Lord to not only enter the home of Zacchaeus but also his heart, bringing salvation to him and all his household. Amen.

Parishioner falls asleep in the Lord

+GERALD J. ARENDAS, 76, of Coitsville, fell asleep in the Lord on Tuesday, January 17, 2023. He is the husband of parishioner Arleen Arendas, father of parishioner Michelle Arendas, and brother of parishioners Andy (Marge) Arendas, Joann (Jerry) Skubiak, and Mary Ann Mihaly. His Funeral Divine Liturgy will be offered on Monday, January 23, 2023 at 11:00 a.m. at our St. Michael Church with interment at St. John Cemetery. A Parastas will be held at the Davidson- Becker Funeral Home Today, Sunday, January 22nd at 1:30 p.m. with viewing from 2-6 p.m. May God grant to His departed servant, Jerry, blessed repose and eternal memory, vicnaja jemu pamjat.

The All Souls Saturdays for 2023

February 11th marks the First of 5 All Souls Saturdays for this year of 2023. If you wish to add names to your list from last year or make a new one, please submit the special sheet in the narthex. Following the requiem Divine Liturgy, the names of your submitted deceased loved ones are read aloud. A stipend is usually given for each of the five liturgies.

Donation box soon to be on property

Our St. Michael Church will have a yellow donation box near the Hall parking lot sponsored by Planet Aid. You may donate new/slightly used coats, clothing, and shoes. These donations will be sent to Ukraine to those affected by the war. The box should be in place in a couple of weeks.

Pick up your Commemorative Book – Extra books available to purchase

You may pick up your 100th Anniversary Commemorative Book in the narthex following the weekend liturgies. You will be asked to initial that you received the book. Also, extra books can be purchased at the price of $17.00. If a book is to be mailed, it will be $20.00.

Next Sunday is last Sunday to fill Treasure Chest

Part of closing out our 100th Anniversary is that we have a treasure chest that will be buried on our parish property, to be dug up at our Parish's 125th Anniversary in the year 2047. You are asked to fill out note cards to be placed in the chest answering two questions: (1) What does St. Michael Church mean to you? & (2) What would you want those to know in 2047 when this chest is going to be opened? If you haven't filled one out yet, you may do so in the back of the church by next Sunday.

Contribution envelopes reminder

If there is any change on your monthly contribution envelopes that you receive in the mail, such as name or address, please inform the parish office.

Preparing for Lenten Fasting....We now begin the Pre-Lenten Season. For the next five weeks, a new recipe will be in the bulletin if you would like to consider for your Lenten meals. Remember, The Great Fast begins on February 20, 2023.

Baked Polenta

It's also a perfect dish to take along to a potluck since it can be made in advance and served at room temperature.

Ingredients

- 1 cup cornmeal
- 4 cups water
- 1 tablespoon salt
- 2 Tbsp nutritional yeast
- 1 teaspoon onion or garlic powder (optional)
- 3-4 ripe red tomatoes
- Large handful of fresh basil, chopped
- Salt & lots of black pepper

Preparation

1. Chop the tomatoes and basil and combine them together in a mixing bowl. Season with salt and lots of black pepper.
2. Combine the water, cornmeal, salt, and seasonings in a saucepan and whisk well to combine. Continue to whisk as you bring the mixture to a boil. Once it thickens, pour it into a parchment-lined baking dish.
3. Sprinkle the tomato-basil mixture over the top of the polenta and bake at 400 degrees for 30 minutes.
4. Allow to cool slightly before serving. (Those tomatoes can get really hot)

Tips

Top your polenta with sauteed greens and mushrooms before baking, or maybe a tapenade of black olives, or caramelized onions. or diced peppers, onions and corn!
