Humility is the Mark of a Sinner

In the case of that Pharisee who was praying, the things he said were true. Since he was saying them out of pride and the tax collector was telling his sins with humility, the confession of sins of the last was more pleasing to God than the acknowledgment of the almsgiving of the first. It is more difficult to confess one's sins than one's righteousness. God looks on the one who carries a heavy burden. The tax collector therefore appeared to Him to have had more to bear than the Pharisee had. He went down more justified than the Pharisee did, only because of the fact he was humble. If this Pharisee had been sinful, his prayer would have added iniquity to iniquity, but the Lord purified the tax collector of his iniquity. If just by praying, the Pharisee's prayer provoked God's wrath, then as a result of that provocation, the prayer of the tax collector proved all the more potent.

St. Ephrem the Syrian

The stern Pharisee, who in his self pride not only boasted of himself but also discredited the tax collector in the presence of God, made his justice void by being guilty of pride. Instead of the Pharisee, the tax collector went down justified, because he had given glory to God, the Holy One. He did not dare lift his eyes but sought only to plead for mercy. He accused himself by his posture, by striking his breast, and by entertaining no other motive except propitiation. Be on your guard, therefore, and bear in mind this example of severe loss sustained through arrogance. The one guilty of insolent behavior suffered the loss of his justice and forfeited his reward by his bold self-reliance. He was judged inferior to a humble man and a sinner because in his self-exaltation he did not await the judgment of God but pronounced it himself. Never place yourself above anyone, not even great sinners. Humility often saves a sinner who has committed many terrible transgressions.

The Feast Of The Three Holy Hierarchs On Monday

On the 30th day of January, we celebrate the memory of three great and very outstanding bishops, teachers, preachers and Fathers of the Eastern Church: St. Basil the Great, St. Gregory the Theologian and St. John Chrysostom. These three hierarchs-bishops were giants of faith, courage, holiness and learning. They handed down to us the pure faith of the Council of Nicea; they expounded the dogmas of the Holy Trinity, Christ's divinity and the Holy Eucharist. Because of their great merits, in her liturgy our Eastern Church calls them peers of the Apostles, instruments of the Holy Spirit, pillars of the Church and universal teachers of the whole world. All three lived in the fourth century—the golden age of the Christian faith. St. Basil and St. Gregory were sons of Cappadocia in Asia Minor, intimate friends of approximately the same age. St. John Chrysostom, an Antiochian, was younger than the other two by 20 years. Apostolic zeal for the holy faith and salvation of souls united them. Join us for the holyday THIS MONDAY, January 30th at 11:00 a.m.

The Feast Of The Encounter (Presentation) Of Our Lord On Thursday

On February 2nd, we celebrate the Encounter of our Lord Jesus Christ with Simeon in the Temple. In this beautiful scene, the aged Simeon takes the Baby Jesus up in his arms and expresses his delight and joy to God in a brief prayer. The event occurred when Joseph and Mary brought the Child to the Temple to present Him the Lord, according to the law of Moses. The holy family had made its little pilgrimage from Bethlehem to Jerusalem, a distance of about five miles, to accomplish what was called the purification of Mary. This required the presentation of a lamb, or for those who were poor, of two pigeons. In addition, a gift of five shekels to the Temple was required as an acknowledgement of God's claim over the first born male of the household; the child was thus redeemed from sacred duties to enter the secular life. Taking Jesus into his arms was an act of will by Simeon. The Spirit had prepared him to meet Jesus at the correct moment and had providentially brought them together. Simeon was driven under the impulse of the Spirit to hurry into the Temple, and when he was confronted with the Christ Child, he accepted Him into his arms immediately overlooking the poverty, the humility, or the apparent insignificance of the family. The impulse of the Spirit told him this was to be his only opportunity to see Christ. Join us for the holyday THIS THURSDAY, February 2nd at 6:00 p.m.

The Solemn Blessing Of Candles On Thursday

On February 2nd, candles are blessed. The blessing of candles is our profession that we have seen the true Light Jesus Christ. We have encountered Him and allowed Him into our lives by our faith in Him and by our worship of Him which stems from faith. The prayer for the blessing asks Christ to bless the candles that they may be lit with a visible flame to dispel darkness, and that our hearts enlightened by the invisible light of the Holy Spirit.

Hall clean-up day scheduled for Wednesday

On Wednesday, February 1st, Volunteers are asked to begin cleaning and organizing the storage rooms at our St. Michael Hall. Time is 12:00 noon to 8:00 p.m. If you can offer some help, please show up. For any questions, you may see Annette.

No penitential practice this Friday

Our Byzantine Catholic Church proscribes NO FASTING/PENANCE this Friday, February 3rd...lest we become puffed up with the unholy pride of the Pharisee who boasted about his fasting. Enjoy meat this Friday.

The Pre-Sanctified Liturgies begin next month

During the holy season of the Great Fast, which this year begins February 20th, our Byzantine Catholic Church proscribes the Pre-Sanctified Divine Liturgy to be celebrated. This is a special Liturgy with different melodies in which no Consecration takes place, due to the fact that the Eucharist is already consecrated (pre-sanctified). In this year of 2023, our pastor will celebrate the Pre-Sanctified Divine Liturgy on WEDNESDAYS DURING THE GREAT FAST (LENT) AT 6:00 P.M. Join us for the weekly Pre-Sanctified Liturgies during the season of The Great Fast. Don't miss out on attending this beautiful and uplifting Lenten Liturgy. Make it part of your Lenten goals to attend!

We often hear, "Life is short, better enjoy it!"
How about, "Eternity is long, better prepare for it!"

Preparing for Lenten Fasting....During these Pre-Lenten Sundays, a new recipe will be in the bulletin if you would like to consider for your Lenten meals. Remember, The Great Fast begins on February 20, 2023.

Lentil Loaf

This delicious Meatloaf substitute is great when served with pureed cauliflower or mashed potatoes with caramelized onions!

Ready in 90 minutes

Serves 6-8 people

Second Helpings:

This lentil loaf is great the next day, sliced and served as a sandwich on toast with extra ketchup, lettuce, tomato and onion.

Or crumbled into chili or into pasta sauce so your marinara becomes like a bolognese!

Ingredients

- 1 cup brown lentils
- 1 medium onion
- 2 stalks of celery, finely diced
- 2 medium carrots, finely diced
- 4 oz package of mushrooms, finely diced
- 2 cloves of garlic, minced
- 1 cup uncooked quick oats
- 1 Tbsp dry thyme
- 1 Tbsp dry oregano
- 3 Tbsp flax meal
- 2 Tbsp Worcestershire sauce
- 3 Tbsp ketchup, plus some more to top before baking
- 2 Tbsp soy sauce, or liquid aminos
- 2 Tbsp nutritional yeast flakes
- 1 tsp coarsely ground fennel seeds (optional...but really good !)

Preparation

1. Cook the lentils and drain them well.
2. In a large skillet, sauté the onion, carrots, celery, mushrooms and garlic in about 1/4 cup of water or vegetable stock, until translucent and just beginning to brown
3. Transfer to a large mixing bowl and add the lentils, oats and remaining seasonings, mixing well to form a wet dough.
4. Transfer this to a loaf pan that has been lined with parchment paper, then top the lentil loaf with some more ketchup before baking at 350 for one hour.

Alternatively:

Drop by spoonfuls (or use a large scoop) onto a parchment lined baking sheet to make individual "meatballs". These are baked for 15 minutes, rolled over, then baked for 10 minutes more. Excellent in a tomato sauce over pasta!
