Christ Continues to Catch People

He told Simon and his companions to sail off a little from the land and to let down the net for a draught. But they replied that they had been toiling the whole night and had caught nothing. However, in the name of Christ, they let down the net, and immediately it was full of fish. By a visible sign and by a miraculous type and representation, they were fully convinced that their labor would be rewarded, and the zeal displayed in spreading out the net of the gospel teaching would be fruitful. Within this net they should most certainly catch the shoals of the heathen. But note that neither Simon nor his companions could draw the net to land. Speechless from fright and astonishment for their wonder had made them mute, they beckoned to their partners, to those who shared their labors in fishing, to come and help them in securing their prey. For many have taken part with the Holy Apostles in their labors, and still do so, especially those who inquire into the meaning of what is written in the holy Gospels. Yet besides them there are also others: the pastors and teachers and rulers of the people, who are skilled in the doctrines of truth. For the net is still being drawn, while Christ fills it, and calls to conversion those who, according to the Scripture phrase, are in the depths of the sea, that is to say, those who live in the surge and waves of worldly things.

NEW RECTOR APPOINTED TO OUR SEMINARY

On Tuesday, September 19, 2023, Fr. Ron Barusefski was appointed the 16th Rector of the Byzantine Catholic Seminary of Ss. Cyril and Methodius.

BIO

Fr. Ron Barusefski is a vocation of Holy Ghost Byzantine Catholic Church, Jessup, Pennsylvania. He entered B.C.S. in the fall of 1981 and was graduated cum laude from Duquesne University with a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Philosophy and Theology in 1985. After completing four additional years of theological study at the Seminary, he was ordained to the priesthood on May 14, 1989.

In the fall of 2011, after many years of parochial ministry, Fr. Barusefski began canon law studies at The Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C. He graduated with his licentiate in canon law on May 17, 2014, after completing his thesis entitled "The Competency of the Council of Hierarchs of the Byzantine Ruthenian Metropolitan Church USA Sui Iuris." Fr. Ron was then named pastor of St. John the Baptist Byzantine Catholic Church in Bayonne, New Jersey, and administrator of St. Mary's Byzantine Catholic Church in Jersey City, New Jersey, and administrator of St. George Byzantine Catholic, Newark, New Jersey. He was also appointed Vice-Chancellor and Adjutant Judicial Vicar of the Eparchy of Passaic.

In the summer of 2015, Fr. Barusefski was sent for doctoral studies in canon law at the Pontifical University of St. Thomas Aquinas. After completion of his first year of doctoral studies, Fr. Ron was appointed the Director of Apostolic Formation and member of the External Formation Faculty at the Pontifical North American College in June 2016. While being responsible for the many different pastoral ministries afforded to the seminarians including parish and campus ministry, catechesis, and care for the poor and sick, he also shared the Byzantine Tradition with regular celebration of the Divine Liturgy and other liturgical services, as well as discussions and presentations. After completing his five-year term of office at the NAC in June 2021, Fr. Barusefski returned to full-time doctoral work. He has published his dissertation entitled "The Role of the Council of Hierarchs with special reference to the Byzantine Ruthenian Metropolitan Church sui iuris in the United States," having defended it in June 2022.

On August 1, 2022, Fr. Ron was appointed the Director of Human Formation at B.C.S. He has served in that capacity and as personal formational advisor to seminarians in the configuration stage of formation since that date.

SHARE YOUR SMILE 😊

A smile costs nothing, but creates much. It happens in a flash, but the memory of it lasts forever. It cannot be begged, borrowed, or stolen, but it is of no earthly good to anyone until it is given away. So, if in a hurry, you meet someone who is too weary to smile, leave one of yours, for no one needs a smile so much as he who has none to give.

Don't just ATTEND your church - LOVE your church.
