The Rich Man vs. Lazarus

Lazarus, the beggar, is called by his name because he was a saint, but the man who is rich and proud is not deemed worthy of a name. ... The meaning of Lazarus' name is boethoumenos, one who has been helped; he is not a helper, but one who has been helped. He was a poor man and, in his poverty, the Lord came to his assistance. "Who lay at his gate, covered with sores." The rich man, in purple splendor, is not accused of being avaricious, nor of carrying off the property of another, nor of committing adultery, nor, in fact, of any wrongdoing; the evil alone of which he is guilty is pride. Most wretched of men, you see a member of your own body lying there outside at your gate, and have you no compassion? If the precepts of God mean nothing to you, at least take pity on your own plight, and be in fear lest you become such as he. Why do you save what is superfluous to your pleasures? Give in alms to your own member what you waste. I am not telling you to throwaway your wealth. What you throw out, the crumbs from your table, offer as alms.

"Who lay at his gate." He was lying at the gate in order to draw attention to the cruelty paid to his body and to prevent the rich man from saying, "I did not notice him; he was in a corner; I could not see him; no one announced him to me." He lay at the gate; you saw him every time you went out and every time you came in. When your throngs of servants and clients were attending you, he lay there full of ulcers. If your eyes disdained to look upon putrid flesh, did not your ears, at least, hear his plea? "Who lay at his gate, covered with sores." He did not have just one sore, his whole body was sores, so that the magnitude of his suffering might arouse your utmost compassion.

On this Sunday again we hear a very familiar parable about the Rich Man and the poor man named Lazarus. From this Gospel reading we learn that if we give our love to money and to the things of the world that it buys and not to God, we suffer, we are committing sin, because we are choosing to live against God and against the principle of our nature. The reason it is “sinful” to love money and the things it can buy is because it goes against the law of our nature. The law of our nature is to love God in whom we were made. Only when we love God are we truly healthy, whole and alive. When we give our love to money and to the lusts of the flesh that money can buy, we give our love to that which has no life, to what passes away. We are then giving our love to death. This is why we are sick in soul and body. In our love for money, we have become disconnected from ourselves, disjointed, and fragmented.

The Rich Man in this morning’s parable represents anyone who loves money and the things of the world it can buy. Perhaps the Rich man in this morning’s Gospel represents especially us who call ourselves Christian. We say we love God with our lips; but what do we love in our secret heart? Outwardly, we attend the Divine Services. Outwardly, we say our prayers. We may even say them regularly, faithfully. But in our heart, who, what do we love?

According to this parable of Lazarus and the Rich Man, the chief distinguishing mark of the lover of money is indifference to his neighbor in need. Engrossed in the endless chase to get ahead, he is in total disregard to the suffering and the needs of others. On this Sunday let us renew the vision of the Gospel that the Church through her prophets, her preachers and teachers, cries out to all of us: “In the fear of God, with faith and love draw near.” Turn away from the love of money and from the lusts of the flesh, the lust of the eyes and the pride of life; for these are not of the Father but they are of the world, and the world passes away, and the lust of it, but he who does the will of God abides forever. Serve God as your only Master. To take up your cross is to take up the work of learning to love Him with all your heart and your neighbor, even your enemy, the suffering and the needy as yourself; and so you may live and go in and take possession of the land, the Kingdom of Heaven, that the Lord, the God of our fathers, has given to you. Amen.

Christ The King Sunday next weekend

Next weekend at the Liturgies, we will observe Christ The King Sunday. In the Byzantine Catholic Church, Christ The King Sunday is the last Sunday in October (optional commemoration). There will be special propers (changeable parts in the Liturgy) along with mirovanije.

GCU Halloween treat for kids

This weekend, GCU will be distributing a Halloween treat to all our parish children following the Saturday evening Liturgy and the Sunday morning Liturgy.

St. Michael's Day Dinner in 13 days...RSVP now

In celebration of our patronal saint, our Patronal Dinner will be on Saturday, November 4th at 7:00 p.m. The Dinner will be at our Hall following the Vigil Divine Liturgy. Enclosed in today's bulletin is the form to be filled out for the dinner. You can submit cash or check with your RSVP form. Next weekend is the final weekend to rsvp.

Our GCU Constellation food & personal care drive

Collection of non-perishable food and personal care items will begin on November 4th through November 19th. Items such as nonperishable food and soap, shampoo, deodorant, lotion, tooth paste & brushes, gloves, socks and hats. Cash donations will also be accepted. You may leave your donations by the autumn tree in the church. Also, there will be a chance to win a holiday wreath with gift cards if you donate. It will benefit Our Community Kitchen Food Pantry, 551 Mahoning Avenue, Youngstown, OH 44502. Any more information, you may see Ed Stanko.

St. Nicholas Charity dinner for the Seminary

The 66th Annual St. Nicholas Celebration is Sunday, December 3, 2023 at the Cathedral of St. John the Baptist, Munhall, PA and tickets are now available! If you would like to attend this year, please let our pastor know ASAP. A table of 10 will be purchased to benefit our Seminary.

GCU raffle for the seminary

Each year, the GCU sponsors the Annual St. Nicholas Celebration Dinner for the benefit of the Byzantine Catholic Seminary of Saints Cyril & Methodius. In addition to the dinner (article above), there is a special raffle for $2,000 in cash. Each church in our Archeparchy has been given 17 tickets to sell. Each ticket has one 3-digit number which you are trying to match with the PA Lottery Evening Pick 3 Number drawn on Wednesday, December 6, 2023. Each ticket sells for $10 and the winning ticket will receive $2,000 in Holiday Cash!! See Father to purchase a ticket!

Volunteers needed to bake for sale on Election Day

Our St. Michael Hall will serve as a voting site for the upcoming General Election on Tuesday, November 7th. Our parish will be having a food and bake sale this day at the Hall. If you would like to bake, cookies or any dessert, please drop off at the Hall the weekend of November 4-5 after liturgies. Sloppy Joes, hotdogs, halushki, chips, & drinks will be sold in addition to the baked goods.

Sign-up names of living Veterans

November 11th is Veteran's Day. Our pastor will bestow a special blessing to ALL VETERANS AND MILITARY PERSONNEL who are worshipping with us at the Liturgies the weekend of November 11th & 12th. Once again this year, we would like to recognize all our parish veterans by name. If you are veteran or you know of a living veteran of our parish, please sign the special sheet in the narthex.

Pirohi continues this week

Our St. Michael Church will continue making homemade pirohi for upcoming fundraisers and sales: Tuesday, October 24th and Wednesday October 25th at 9:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m. There will be no evening work this week. All are welcome to help out with prep and pinch.

Hall landscaping commences this week

This coming week, all of the green shrubs and dead trees will be removed around our St. Michael Hall. Some new things will be planted at the entrance of the hall. This is a continuation from the landscaping around the church from last year. Work is being done by Precision Property Maintenance.

Note

Due to awaiting some income, the Reverse Raffle profit will be published in next week's bulletin. Once again, a special thanks to ALL who supported this event.

Maybe you're not stuck, maybe God is waiting for you to:

- Move in faith without knowing the outcome
- Forgive even when it feels impossible
- Obey in the small ways first
- Embrace a season of quiet with Him
- Learn this lesson before you lead others
- Let go of what you think it must look like
- Allow Him to minister to your broken places
- Stop leaning on your own understanding
- Address your excuses
- Be strong enough to carry what He's called you to
