The Myrrh-Bearing Women

The Sunday of the Myrrh-Bearing Women ... reminds us that the love and faithfulness of a few individuals shone brightly in the midst of hopeless darkness. It calls us to ensure that in this world love and faithfulness do not disappear or die out. It judges our lack of courage, our fear, our endless and servile rationalizations. The mysterious Joseph and Nicodemus, and these women who go to the grave at dawn, occupy so little space in the gospels. Precisely here, however, is where the eternal fate of each of us is decided.

Today, I think, we are especially in need of recovering this love and basic human loyalty. For we have entered a time when even these are being discredited by harmful concepts of the person and human life now prevailing in this world. For centuries, the world still had the weak, but still flickering and shining, glow from that faithfulness, love and co-suffering which was silently present at the sufferings of the Man cast aside by all. And we need to cling, as if to a last thread, to everything in our world that still thrives on the warm light of simple, earthly, human love. Love does not ask about theories and ideologies, but speaks to the heart and soul. Human history has rumbled along, kingdoms have risen and fallen, cultures have been built and bloody wars fought, but what has remained unchanging on earth and in this troubled and tragic history is the bright image of the woman. An image of care, self-giving, love, compassion. Without this presence, without this light, our world, regardless of its successes and accomplishments, would be a world of terror.

SUNDAY OF THE OINTMENT-BEARING WOMEN

In the beginning of His public life, Jesus often went to Galilee where He performed many miracles. A group of holy women followed Him around, ministering to Him out of their own resources. They even accompanied Him to the foot of the Cross. On the morning of the third day after His death they came to the tomb bearing ointments to embalm His body. Seven of them are known by name: Mary Magdalene, Mary, mother of James and wife of Cleophas, Joanna, the wife of Chusa, a steward to Herod Antipas, Salome, the mother of the sons of Zebedee, Suzanna, and Martha and Mary, the sisters of Lazarus.

Two secret disciples of Christ are also commemorated today: Nicodemus, a leader of the Pharisees who came to visit Jesus at night and believed in Him, as told in the third chapter of the Gospel according to John; and Joseph of Arimathea, a rich and noble citizen of Ramah, or Arimathea. After Christ died he had the courage to claim His body and place it in his own new tomb.

CHRIST IS RISEN!

He arose because His life could not be locked in death. He arose because the grave could not hold Him. He arose, for He had an appointment with God. He arose because He had told His disciples He would. He arose to bring redemption. He arose to be the unshakable Rock. He arose because He had a purpose to fulfill. He arose because He had a task to perform. He arose because He has a Church to build. He arose to be the Head of the Church. He arose to preside over the altar. He arose to wash men's sin away. He arose because He has a Comforter to send unto men. He arose to rule in the pure heart. He arose, for He has life to impart. He arose, for He has the light...the only light of men. He arose because He has healing for the ill. He arose because He has the answer for life's great questions. He arose because He loved with a deathless love. He arose because He has some mansions to prepare. He arose to walk again with men. He arose to call again, again, and again. He arose to inspire men to be righteous. He arose to help carry burdens...heavy burdens. He arose to show the way beyond the grave. He arose to speak to the hearts of men. He arose to condemn sin and evil. He arose to console and pity and understand. He arose to inspire preachers and empower sermons. He arose to condemn sin forever. He arose to be a King...forever a King.

He lives! He lives! He forever lives!

DEATH'S STING IS GONE...

A little boy and his father were driving down a country road on a beautiful spring afternoon. Suddenly out of nowhere a bumblebee flew in the car window. Since the little boy was deathly allergic to bee stings, he became petrified. His father quickly reached out, grabbed the bee, squeezed it in his hand, and then released it. But as soon as he let it go, the young son became frantic once again as it buzzed by the little boy. The father sensed his son's terror. Once again, he reached out his hand, but this time he pointed to this hand. There, stuck in his skin was the stinger of the bee. "You see this?" he asked. "You don't need to be afraid anymore. I've taken the sting for you." The Christian does not need to be afraid of death because the Risen Christ has taken the sting out of death and sin.
