Homily by St. John Chrysostom on Matthew 17

This man the Scripture signifies to be exceedingly weak in faith; and this is many ways evident – from Christ's saying, "All things are possible to him that believes;" from the saying of the man himself that approached, "Help my unbelief;" from Christ's commanding the devil to "enter no more into him;" and from the man's saying again to Christ, "If You can." Yet if his unbelief was the cause, it may be said, that the devil went not out, why does He blame the disciples? Signifying, that even without persons to bring the sick in faith, they might in many instances work a cure. For as the faith of the person presenting oftentimes availed for receiving the cure, even from inferior ministers; so the power of the doers oftentimes sufficed, even without belief in those who came to work the miracle.

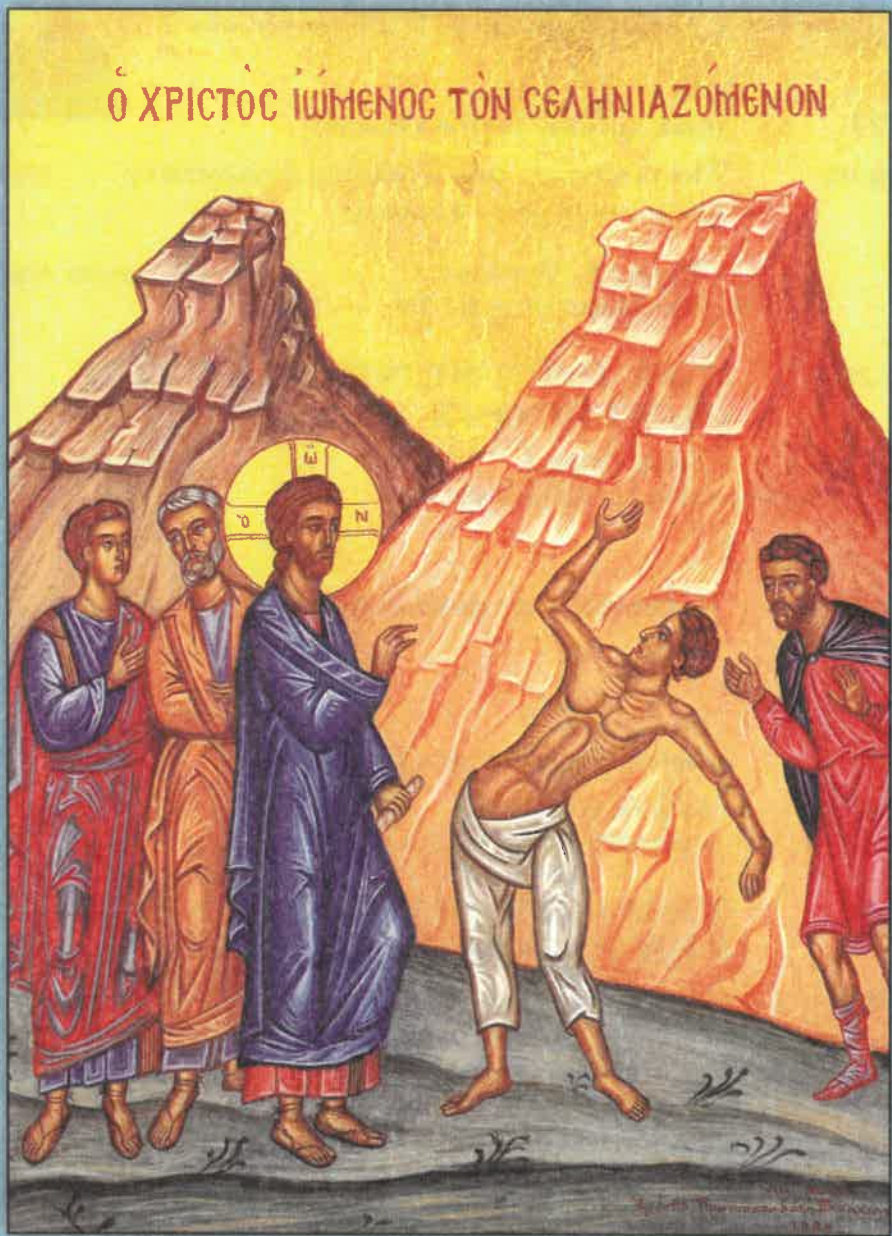

And both these things are signified in the Scripture. For as to those that cast him down, not for faith but for cowardice did they cast him, unintentionally and by chance, for fear of the band of robbers, and so they fled: while the person himself that was cast in was dead, yet by the mere virtue of the holy body the dead man arose.

Whence it is clear in this case, that even the disciples were weak; but not all; for the pillars Galatians 2:9 were not present there. And see this man's want of consideration, from another circumstance again, how before the multitude he pleads to Jesus against His disciples, saying, "I brought him to Your disciples, and they could not cure him."

But He, acquitting them of the charges before the people, imputes the greater part to him. For, O faithless and perverse generation, these are His words, how long shall I be with you? Matthew 17:17 not aiming at his person only, lest He should confound the man, but also at all the Jews. For indeed many of those present might probably be offended, and have undue thoughts of them.

30 ways to pray for people in authority

The life of every citizen is impacted by an estimated 500,000 or more individuals who wield significant influence each day. Consider the vast multitude of elected officials, appointed judges, lawyers, police officers, bureaucrats, officials, military officers, media elite, news anchors, publishers and educators, talk show hosts, business executives and managers, theologians, ministers, rabbis, priests, chaplains, elders, pastors, deacons, lay workers, ministry heads, educators, professors, teachers, medical practitioners and hospital administrators, scientists, researchers, inventors and engineers, artists and designers, athletes, actors and entertainment figures. How might we pray for these individuals? Here are some tips when keeping such people in your prayers:

1. That they be God fearing and recognize that they are accountable to Him for each decision and act. (Prov 9:10)
2. That they be granted wisdom, knowledge and understanding. (Js 1:5)
3. That they be presented with the gospel and loving Christian witness. (Rom 10:14)
4. That they be strengthened and encouraged in their faith. (1Tim 2:4; Eph 1:17-23)
5. That they recognize their own inadequacy and pray and seek the will of God. (Prov 3:5-8; Lk 11:9-13)
6. That they be mindful of sin, transgression and iniquity. (Ps 51:17; Jn 8:9)
7. That they heed their conscience, confess their sins and repent. (Prov 28:13; Js 4:8)
8. That they read the Bible and attend prayer services and Bible studies. (Ps 114:11; Col 3:2)
9. That they value and regard the Ten Commandments and the teachings of Christ. (Ps 19:7-11; Jn 8:31,32)
10. That they respect and honor their own parents, if living. (Eph 6:2,3)
11. That they respect authority and practice accountability. (Rom 13:1-7)
12. That they be given godly counsel and God fearing advisors. (Prov 24:6)
13. That they be honest and faithful to spouses and children. (Mal 2:15,16)
14. That they be practicing members of local congregations. (Heb 10:25)
15. That they desire purity and avoid debauchery, pornography, perversion and drunkenness. (1 Cor 6:9-20; Ti 2:12)
16. That they be timely, reliable and dependable. (Mt 21:28-31)
17. That they be honest in financial, tax and ethical matters. (1 Cor 6:10; 1 Tim 6:6-10)
18. That they seek pastoral care and counsel when needed. (Heb 13:7)
19. That they seek out and nurture godly friendships. (Ps 1:1-3)
20. That they have thankful and teachable spirits. (Rom 1:21)
21. That they be generous and have compassionate hearts for the poor and needy. (Ps 112:9; Lk. 10:33-37)
22. That they redeem their time and know priorities. (Eph 5:15-17)
23. That they desire honesty, integrity and loyalty. (Ps 26; Prov. 11:3)
24. That they have courage to resist manipulation, bribery, pressure and the fear of man. (Prov. 29:25; 2 Tim 1:7)
25. That they be shielded from occultism, New Age cults, false religions and secret societies. (Is 1:29; 2:6)
26. That they be presented with biblical world views and principles. (Eph 3:10)
27. That they endeavor to restore the sanctity of life, families, divine order and morality in our nation. (Eph. 5:22-6:1)
28. That they would work to reverse the trends of humanism, socialism and statism in our nation. (1 Chr. 12:32; Is 59:15)
29. That they desire humility and meekness and be willing to serve and cooperate. (Jn 13:124; Ti 3:1:2)
30. That they be prepared to give account to Almighty God. (Heb 9:27)

Dormition Fast, Spasovka, begins Thursday

Our Byzantine Catholic Church designates a non-obligatory fast during the first two weeks in August to honor the Most-Holy Theotokos. It is observed in preparation for the feast of her Dormition, or "Falling Asleep" on August 15th. Fasting, accompanied by prayer and works of charity, is a way of disciplining our entire person, not just the body. Mary is the perfect example of one who allowed the Holy Spirit to enter her life and transform her into a dwelling-place for God. The Dormition fast challenges us to come to Christ and imitate the Virgin Mary's virtuous and sinless life. Use her powerful prayers before Her Son, because never was it known that anyone who fled to her protection, implored her help, or sought her intercession was left unaided. From August 1-14, let us offer an increase in our prayer, some minor fasting, and help others.

Our Parish summer picnic in two weeks

Our Parish Family summer picnic will be held on SUNDAY, August 11th here at our St. Michael Church grounds. The 11:00 a.m. Sunday Divine Liturgy will be held outside by the hall under the tent. Volunteers will be needed to help prepare and for set-up. Each family is kindly asked to bring a dessert to share. Please submit the RSVP form if you haven't done so. Forms are once again enclosed in today's bulletin. Join us for a fun filled afternoon with food, games, and parish fellowship.

Church etiquette

Just a friendly reminder that when entering the nave of our church, it should be a space of solemnity and quiet. Before Liturgy begins, sometimes people come early to pray, and on Sunday's, the holy rosary is usually said. Please refrain from chatting with someone or loud talking.
