The True Light of Revelation to the Gentiles

The Evangelist commemorates in this passage [today's Gospel] the prophet's words: "Beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles: the people who sat in darkness have seen a great light." In what darkness? Certainly in the profound error of ignorance. What great light did they see? The light concerning which it is written: "He was the true light that illumines everyone who comes into this world." This was the light about which the just man Simeon in the Gospel declared, "A light of revelation to the Gentiles and a glory for your people Israel." That light had arisen according to what David had announced, saying a light has arisen in the darkness to the upright of heart." Also, Isaiah demonstrated that light about to come for the enlightenment of the Church when he said, "Arise, shine; for your light has come, and the glory of the Lord has risen upon you." Concerning that light also Daniel noted, "It reveals the profound and hidden things, knowing those things which are in darkness and the light is with it," that is, the Son with the Father, for even as the Father is light, so too is the Son light. And David also speaks in the psalm: "In your light shall we see light," for the Father is seen in the Son, as the Lord tells us in the Gospel: "Who sees me, sees the Father." From the true light, indeed, the true light proceeded, and from the invisible the visible. "He is the image of the invisible God," as the apostle notes.

Repentance

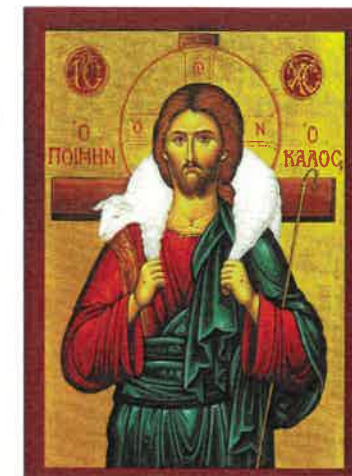

As we ease into the middle of January and fondly remember the Feasts of Christmas and the Baptism of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, we are reminded in today's Gospel of a very important aspect of our faith: Repentance. We witness in the Gospel our Lord going to Capernaum to begin His public ministry, and the first word He shares is "Repent." Our Lord tells us to "Repent, for the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand," and this should serve as a reminder of the constant work that we need to put into our lives as Christians.

Salvation is not automatic for us: Christ was born and rose from the dead, which allows us to achieve salvation; however, it is our choice whether we will follow Him or not. As baptized Christians, we have the responsibility of discerning right from wrong and of helping others know the difference as well. In this light, we can see that repentance is something that never has an end: we constantly should be working towards Christ, becoming icons of Him in our world, and moving away from ourselves, from our own selfishness and ego. The Greek word for repentance is 'metanoia,' and this word literally means a transformation of our mind and our view of the world, of ourselves, and of those around us.

Repentance is much more than just saying "I'm sorry." It is much more than just confessing our sins in the Mystery of Repentance. Repentance is a total transformation of self, a resolve to be better. In our world today, we often fail to recognize sin, for as so many say 'right is wrong, and wrong is right.' We encounter a world that is indifferent to sin, or perhaps even worse, we recognize sin but do not take responsibility for it. Much like Adam in the Garden of Eden, our first inclination can be to blame others for our own sins, and by doing this, we separate ourselves from God. If we truly seek unity with God, if we truly want eternal salvation, we need to focus on repentance: each and every hour of every day of our lives. Saint John Chrysostom tells us that we need to repent "not merely for one or two days, but throughout our entire life." Saint Siouan tells us that "through repentance we shall all, every one of us, be saved. Only those who refuse to repent will not find salvation." What wise words to reflect on this Sunday!

In order to truly repent, we need to truly transform ourselves: to turn away from sin and turn toward God. We need to acknowledge what we have done wrong, and we need to work to fix this wrong as well as work toward not doing it again. The call of the Gospel is the call to repentance. Our Lord is not speaking to strangers in the Gospel. He speaks to us! Do we listen? Or are we too busy talking to someone or checking our phones or looking through our purses? If we cannot readily recollect the Gospel, how then are we to apply it to our daily lives?

NEWLY SANCTIFIED HOLY WATER AVAILABLE — Last Tuesday evening, January 6th, at the Theophany Divine Liturgy, the Great Sanctification of Water took place. All of us should have holy water present within our homes so that we may partake of it during the year. Holy Water is available in the special fonts near the front of the church.

Did you purposely miss church for Theophany??? January 6th was a Holyday of Obligation – no light matter to miss!!!

The first precept of the Church teaches that the Christian faithful attend The Divine Liturgy on ALL Sundays of the year, as well as on ALL Holydays of Obligation. Besides ALL Sundays, there are 5 Holy Days of Obligation in our Byzantine Catholic Church. The Feast of Theophany of our Lord was a Holy Day of Obligation this past Tuesday, January 6th. Did you attend Church? Only a serious or honorable reason should've prevented you from attending. When you purposely miss a Sunday (Sat. vigil) or Holyday of Obligation without a serious or honorable reason or dispensation from a priest, the Church teaches you are in the state of sin. The Sacrament of Confession is the remedy for this.
