Peter Restores Tabitha to Life

Now in Joppa there was a disciple named Tabitha (which translated in Greek means Dorcas, a gazelle). She was completely occupied with good deeds and almsgiving. Now during those days she fell sick and died, so after washing her, they laid [her] out in a room upstairs. Since Lydda was near Joppa, the disciples, hearing that Peter was there, sent two men to him with the request, "Please come to us without delay."

So Peter got up and went with them. When he arrived, they took him to the room upstairs where all the widows came to him weeping and showing him the tunics and cloaks that Dorcas had made while she was with them. Peter sent them all out and knelt down and prayed. Then he turned to her body and said, "Tabitha, rise up."

She opened her eyes, saw Peter, and sat up. He gave her his hand and raised her up, and when he had called the holy ones and the widows, he presented her alive. This became known all over Joppa, and many came to believe in the Lord. And he stayed a long time in Joppa with Simon, a tanner.

Honoring Christ the King today

Pope Pius XI instituted The Feast of Christ the King in 1925 in his encyclical Quas Primas. Pope Pius connected the denial of Christ as king to the rise of secularism. At the time of Quas Primas, secularism was on the rise, and many Christians, even Catholics, were doubting Christ's authority, as well as the Church's, and even doubting Christ's existence. Pius XI, and the rest of the Christian world, witnessed the rise of dictatorships in Europe, and saw Catholics being taken in by these earthly leaders. Just as the Feast of Corpus Christi (honoring Christ's Most Pure Body) was instituted when devotion to the Eucharist was at a low point, the Feast of Christ the King was instituted during a time when respect for Christ and the Church was waning, when the feast was most needed. In fact, it is still needed today, as these problems have not vanished, but instead have worsened. Thus, Jesus knew the oppressive nature of secular kings, and in contrast to them, he connected his role as king to humble service, and commanded his followers to be servants as well. In other passages of Scripture, his kingdom is tied to his suffering and death. While Christ is coming to judge the nations, his teachings spell out a kingdom of justice and judgment balanced with radical love, mercy, peace, and forgiveness. When we celebrate Christ as King, we are celebrating one willing to die for humanity and whose "loving-kindness endures forever." Christ is the king that gives us true freedom, freedom in Him. The Byzantine Catholic faithful who have immigrated to our country at the turn of the last century from Uzhorod and Presov have always celebrated on this special devotion as they currently do today. May we honor Christ the King by rededicating our lives back to Him.

Happy Halloween

Halloween has a long history in the Christian West. The very word "Halloween" is a shortened form of "All Hallow's Eve". Who are the hallowed ones? ALL GOD'S SAINTS! The Saints of the Church are not only those honored throughout the year with a feast day on the Liturgical calendar. There are many Saints without the formal recognition of the Church through the process of canonization-glorification, but who are clearly recognized as "holy" by those who knew them. To commemorate these Saints the Christian West developed this official day in their calendar. Another reason why "All Hallow's Eve" developed in the Church was as a response to the various superstitious beliefs and practices surrounding death. Remember that October 31st is not "the night of the living dead"...that's Hollywood presenting fiction. We are much surrounded by the secular pagan world and much of what happens on Halloween is far from spiritual. At home, take the time to carefully examine the history of Halloween. Strongly avoid any pagan occults and keep yourself, your children, grandchildren, loved ones far away from the evil aspects of Halloween. Remember that when we the believers, the faithful participate in anything (even Halloween), our attitudes and behavior should glorify Christ. St. Paul reaffirms this when he says to all of us: "Only, conduct yourselves in a way worthy of the gospel of Christ." (Philippians 1:27)
